

"If It Happens In New York It's In The Evening World"

The

Evening

World.

FINAL
EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE TWO CENTS.

Copyright, 1918, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1918.

14 PAGES

PRICE TWO CENTS.

FLANDERS DRIVE HALTED AT ALL POINTS; BRITISH TAKE HUNDREDS OF PRISONERS

LOAN DRIVE FORGES AHEAD, $2,113,998,350 IN NATION, CITY TOTAL $532,100,000

Swifter Pace Is Set for Last Week of Race in New York
District.

IS NEEDED TO WIN OUT
Increase Resulting from Liberty Day Not So Great as Was Hoped For.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Partial reports on Liberty Day sales in the Third Liberty Loan campaign to-day raised the subscription total for the country to $2-113,998,350.

"Committees throughout the country, dissatisfied with the National showing thus far," said the Headquarters Review to-day, "settled down to the hard grind of the last seven days' campaign.
Hope was expressed that as many subscriptions may be taken within the next seven days as have been taken in the last twenty-one. If such a result is not achieved, little more than the $3,000,000 minimum sought by Secretary McAdoo will be subscribed, and the result of the campaign will be a great disappointment."

Kansas, New Mexico, Mississippi, Idaho and Southern California were added to-day to the Honor Roll of States and Districts which have exceeded their quotas. San Francisco reached the 100 per cent mark.

In the New York district Liberty Day celebrations gave such an impetus to the campaign that the district managers awarded forty-nine honor flags.

Hawaii has subscribed $4,350-000, exceeding its quota by 17 per cent.

Subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan in the New York district reached a total of $532,100,000 at 11 o'clock this morning. This represents a gain of $7,589,300 over yesterday's total.

The Liberty Loan Committee set out with grim determination to smash all records in the last week of the campaign. The day's gain is $5,000,000 less than the one recorded yesterday, which the committee considered particularly disappointing in view of the great results expected from the Liberty Day celebration.

The committee realizes the tremendous task ahead of it and will surpass all previous efforts to-day and in the remaining days of the drive. To reach its minimum quota of $900,000,000 the district must raise an average of $52,000,000 a day for the rest of the drive, and in order to obtain the desired total of $1,500,000,000 it must raise an average of $128,000,000 a day.
In the Second Liberty Loan a total of $1,500,000,000 was raised in this district.

A last minute rush from banks, corporations and other big buyers is expected to raise the total in startling jumps, but the committee is taking no chances on this and is reaching out through every possible channel for subscriptions.

A subscription of $5,000,000 worth of the bonds by the American Exchange National Bank was reported to-day, and $2,000,000 worth was taken by the Southern Pacific Company.

Some of the other subscriptions reported to-day were: S. W. Straus & Co., $50,000; Bacon & Co., $25,000; Bear

(Continued on Second Page.)

NEW U. S. CASUALTY LIST OF 103 TAKES IN SEICHEPREY LOSSES

Eleven Soldiers Killed in Action and Forty-seven Are Severely Wounded.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The great west front battle is beginning to take its toll of American fighters.
General Pershing's casualty list today showed 103 names, including eleven killed in action, forty-seven severely wounded, thirty-seven slightly wounded and two missing. In addition four men died of accident and two of disease. There are twelve officers in the list.

To-day's list is believed to contain the list of many who were in the Seicheprey fight, an engagement which had previously been reported wounded in gallant action there.

The list follows:

KILLED IN ACTION.

Lieuts. John D. Amstutz, Charles H.

Long.

Sergt. Edward J. Beatty.

Corporal Harry E. Dittmar, Edward

P. Wing.

Privates Charles D. Gosman, Frank

Durwin, Bernard T. Fitzsimmons,

Eric G. Medquist, Abe Kover, Henry

A. Lacroix.

MISSING.

Lieut. Andrew S. Robinson.

Private Edward P. Maher.

DIED OF ACCIDENT.

Lieuts. Thomas J. Moore, Charles

S. Williams.

Wagoners Fred Bonyea, John

Cochrane.

DIED OF DISEASE.

Privates Sam German, Charles

Naills.

WOUNDED SEVERELY.

Capt. John T. English.

Lieuts. Clement A. Fogarty, Richard R. Purling, Harvey C. Updegrave.

Sergts. Clovis L. Desaulniers,

Charles L. Gilbert, George M. Parks.

Corps. James J. Henderson, Charles

J. Hill, William R. Sheridan, Samuel

Tobias.

Cooks Andrew H. Broadhurst, Leon

Robertson.

Wagoners Russell Drury, Richard

M. Land.

Privates Clarence P. Adoue, Charley P. Day, William Beckwith, Aloy-sio J. Brown, John R. Cannon, Domenico Capuzzi, Brodie Caywood,

Manuel O. Correlia, John W. Dill,

John J. Giles, John M. Grattan, Herbert W. Hopper, Joseph Grattan, Joseph Kacher, John Knops, Joseph

Laugha, Oney E. Lancelotti, Archie C.

Leslie, David E. Marshall, Alphonse

Medder, Andrew P. Offutt, Ray E.

Palmer, Martin Peterson, Frederick

C. Ralston, Henry Smith, Raymond

E. South, John B. Spillane, Nick

Spiano, Abe Zimmerman, Andrew F.

Zint.

SLIGHTLY WOUNDED.

Lieuts. William F. Andrews, Howard I. Deane, Samuel A. Taylor.

Chaplain William J. Parrott.

Sergts. John U. McCormick, Ken-

ned W. Reynolds.

Corps. Elmer M. Allen, John W.

Bowyer, Charles G. Morahan, Mechanne Hugo H. Metzger.

Wagoner John A. Mulhern.

Privates Charles J. Allen, Andrew

Anastasio, James A. Badkirk, George

L. Bandlow, George H. Barnes, Alfred

H. Chagnon, Harry Collins, Ralph

Cook, Joseph F. Corcoran, Arthur

Cruz, Myron D. Dickinson, Antonio

Di Grazia, Van O. Hensland,

William Elliott, Gary E. Foster, John

Gill, Alfred A. Hansen, Bernard F.

(Continued on Second Page.)

American Hero Who Killed Seven Germans, Then Was Slain Himself

LIEUT. JOHN DAVID, OF THE 1ST REG'T.

Fighting hand to hand with a hundred Germans on the nearby battlefield, Lieut. John David accounted for seven of them with his pistol and then fought over their dead bodies with his empty rifle until finally he was struck down from behind.

The account of David's heroic death was contained in a letter from Lieut. Daniel F. Roper Jr. to his father, Commissioner of In-

11 U. S. AMBULANCE MEN WIN WAR CROSSES

French Decorate Americans for Gallant Services During Battle Now Going On.

PARIS, April 27.—Eleven American ambulance men have won the War Cross by gallant services rendered during the battle now in progress.

Lieut. Ralph Richmond, commanding ambulance company 412, with Sergt. James Beche G.
L. Harris, Henry K. James, E. A. Lis-tield and John J. Frensch, who were in submarine terms for several days against the enemy's line across the hazy front.

Charles A. Reed, of Section 225, Holman, Johnson N. Haddock and Robert S. Purcell, of Section 225, and James M. Babby, of Section 225, who were cited in regimental orders for courage displayed on April 26.

LUFFBERRY TOPS AMERICANS IN DOWNING ENEMY PLANES

Has Eighteen to His Credit, Says Thaw, Baer and Dill—Have Five Each.

PARIS, April 27.—The record of American aviators based on the number of victories that each has scored is now: Major Raoul Luffberry, nineteen victories; Major William Thaw, five; Capt. Erwin Baer, five; Sergt. Raymond F. Carr, five; Charles Hiddle, two and a half; Vernon Booth, one; August L. Goshaw, one; and Lieut. Henry Gresham, Sergt. Thomas Hutchcock, Lieut. Fritz Larnor, Sergt.
David Putnam, Sergt. W. A. Weidman, Lieut. Allan Winslow and Lieut. Douglas Campbell, one each.

The German statements were contained in Wolff Bureau telegrams published in Holland, saying that papers captured by the Germans on American aviators shot down behind the German lines proved conclusively that American aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March approximately double by British officials.

GEN. MARCH DENOUNCES LIES TOLD BY GERMANS

Brands Reports That Aviators Travel in Hospital Ships as "Incredible Falshoods."

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Semi-official German statements charging that American aviators were being carried to France on hospital ships, registered as Ambulance Corps men, were formally denied to-day by Major General March, Acting Chief of Staff.

Gen. March branded the reports as "incredible falshoods." He said no American fighting men, either aviators or of any other arm, had ever been respected as ambulances or other non-combatant troops.

The German statements were contained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March
approximately double by British officials.

The German statements were con-
tained in Wolff Bureau telegrams pub-
lished in Holland, saying that papers
captured by the Germans on American
aviators shot down behind the German
lines proved conclusively that American
aviators were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by Gen. March approximately